Foyer

Old Hickory Furniture

Old Hickory's Foyer draws from a history of quality furniture nearly 120 years old. The entry room will have new concepts and new furniture designs in collaboration with another of this year's Western Design Conference Show House designers, Kibler & Kirch. A round center table inspired by early Navajo Chiefs' blankets, an updated Molesworth style chair, and a stunning large cabinet speak to the grandest traditions of Western design and craftsmanship.

Legendary handcrafted quality, comfort and durability are the hallmarks of Old Hickory Furniture Company, founded in Martinsville, Indiana in 1899. Old Hickory is famous for furnishing most of our great National Park Lodges and many resorts, but also provides furnishings for private family homes, cottages and cabins all over the world. Old Hickory furniture can be purchased through high-end retail stores and interior designers all over North America.
