2023

MUSIC DIRECTOR SIR DONALD RUNNICKES
JACKSON HOLE, WYOMING

The Grand Teton Music Festival's mission to provide exhilarating musical experiences does not stop when the summer ends. As part of our commitment to share our passion for music, GTMF provides a variety of events and community programs throughout the year. We greatly appreciate the support of our community, donors, board, musicians and staff, all which help to ensure that great music in Jackson continues.

September 5-8, 2024

Welcome to the 31st Western Design Conference Exhibit + Sale, held in the enchanting town of Jackson, Wyoming, September 7-10, 2023! This annual event has deep historical significance, serving as a bridge between the public and talented artists, while showcasing the rich heritage of Western design. The Western Design Conference (WDC) is renowned for its commitment to connecting art enthusiasts directly with the creators, fostering an authentic and immersive experience.

Since its inception, the WDC has been dedicated to preserving and promoting the diverse artistic traditions that define the American West. Rooted in the spirit of the region, this conference celebrates the unique craftsmanship, innovative techniques, and captivating aesthetics that embody Western design. By removing any commission on sales, the WDC provides an unparalleled platform for artists to directly showcase and sell their work, empowering them to thrive in the contemporary design landscape.

The relevance of the Western Design Conference today extends far beyond its historical roots. As the United States embraces a fusion of traditional and modern influences, Western design has emerged as a dynamic and sought-after genre. Artists and designers across the country are inspired by the rugged landscapes, rich cultural heritage, and frontier spirit of the American West, resulting in a diverse range of contemporary creations that pay homage to the past while embracing the present.

At the 31st Western Design Conference Exhibit + Sale, you will have the privilege of exploring an exquisite array of artwork, furniture, fashion, and home accessories crafted by some of the most talented artisans in the country. From hand-carved furniture to intricately woven textiles, each piece tells a story and reflects the artists' passion and dedication to their craft. Immerse yourself in this captivating world of Western design, and experience firsthand the beauty, authenticity, and time-honored traditions that continue to shape the artistic landscape of the United States.

Step inside the Western Design Conference and embark on a journey that connects the past with the present, celebrates artistic expression, and redefines the boundaries of contemporary design. Welcome to a truly extraordinary experience in Jackson, Wyoming!

JEFFREY DUNGAN

Jeffrey Dungan is a national award-winning architect with projects throughout the United States, Canada, Central America, the Caribbean, and the United Kingdom. Dungan's work has appeared in Architectural Digest, Milieu, Veranda, The Wall Street Journal, Mountain Living, Cowboys & Indians, and many other publications. Dungan's book, The Nature of Home, is published by Rizzoli and remains on the best-seller list.

LOGAN LEACHMAN

Logan Leachman began his career in 1992, under the resolute leadership of Jonathan Foote. In 2000, he joined Paul Bertelli as Partners and Founding Members of Bozeman-based JLF Architects. Leachman initiated many of the design-build methods JLF practices today, an integrated process he continues to champion and refine alongside his other responsibilities overseeing design, project management, company policy, and corporate analytics.

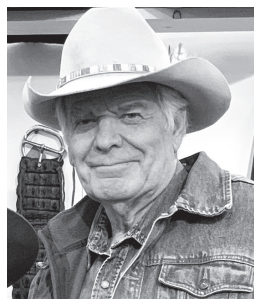

JEREMIAH YOUNG

Jeremiah Young is both Creative Director for Kibler & Kirch, a Montana-based interior design firm founded in 1990, and an art gallerist representing some of the West's brightest artistic voices. He is known for his obsession with lasting quality, timelessness, and his love for both the rustic and the refined in equal measure. A former WDC Best of Show recipient, he is recognized as one of the leading tastemakers in the West and brings a working designer's perspective to this year's jury.

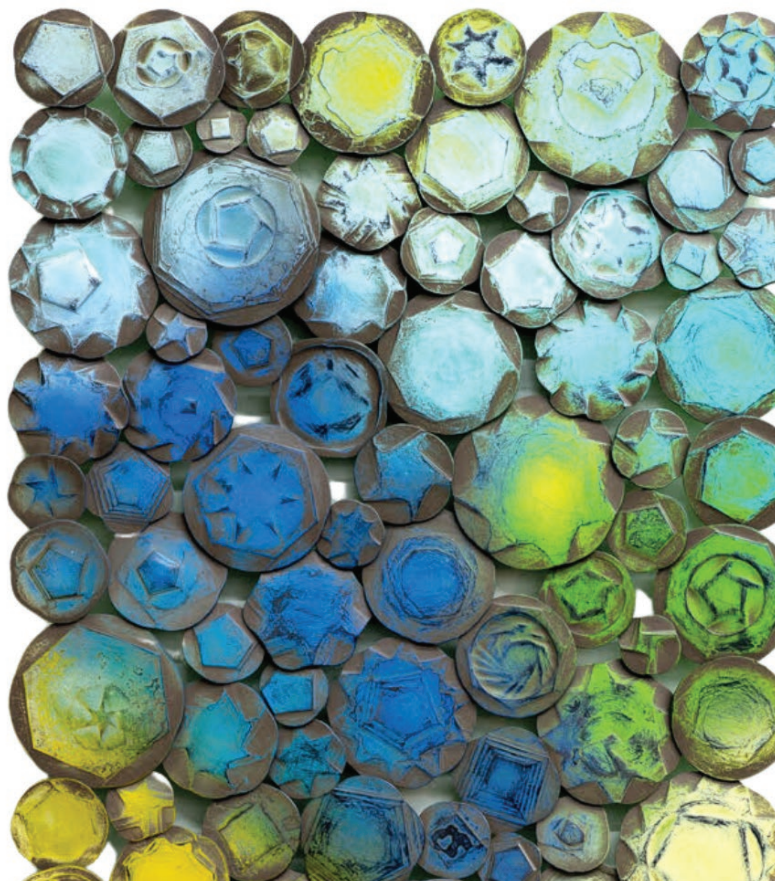

ELLIE THOMPSON

Ellie Thompson is a Chicago based jeweler, designer and artist who has won numerous awards for her innovative use of precious colored gemstones and metals. Her custom jewelry line is both classic and contemporary, combining an adventurous Western spirit with a timeless approach to design and exceptional craftsmanship.

JOHN MORTENSEN

John B. Mortensen, an artist from Wilson, Wyoming, created the Rainbow Trail Collection of Western furnishings in 1991, and participated in the early Western Design Conferences in Cody, Wyoming. He is also a sculptor currently working in bronze, creating life-size and other sculptures since 1973.

WESTERN DESIGN ART AUCTION

The excitement of the Western Design Conference Preview Party begins with the live auction where all proceeds equally benefit the contributing artists and the award winners.

Together with our art auction and sponsors the Western Design Exhibit + Sale presents over $17,000 in awards for design excellence. Juried artisans from across the country showcase new works to a panel of five distinguished judges who select the recipients.

This event celebrates functional museum-quality creations, the finest design with a twist – from cowboy to contemporary.

In this high-tech mass-produced world, we choose to celebrate the one-of-kind, handmade creations that keep the spirit of the West alive.

Contact us at WesternDesignConference.com to become a sponsor or contributing artist and join us!
